Department of State
2201 C Street
Washington, D.C. 20520

Dear Powell:

Since the government of the United States conferred honorary citizenship on Raoul Wallenberg last September, a number of people have contacted me concerning what steps would be taken by our government to follow-up the Resolution's injunction for the President to take all possible steps to ascertain the whereabouts of Raoul Wallenberg and to secure his possible return to freedom. The purpose of my letter today is to request a status report on what steps have been taken or are being contemplated.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

Ernest F. Hollings
